POULE.

The musical score is written for a piano accompaniment of a hen (POULE). It consists of six systems of music. The first system is marked 'No. 3. POULE.' and includes a treble and bass staff. The music is in 2/4 time and features a melody in the treble staff and a piano accompaniment in the bass staff. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'p' (piano). The score is divided into sections by a double bar line and a 'CODA.' marking. The final system ends with a 'D.C.' (Da Capo) marking.

9417.

On Her Majesty's visit to the Palais d'Industrie, the above popular French Air was sung by the Chorus of the Opera and Conservatoire.

This page of musical notation is for a piano piece, consisting of six systems of staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

- System 1: Features a piano (p) dynamic marking. The melody in the right hand is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes.
- System 2: Includes a forte (f) dynamic marking. The right hand features a melodic line with some slurs, and the left hand continues with a rhythmic accompaniment.
- System 3: Continues the musical development with similar melodic and accompaniment patterns.
- System 4: Features a forte (f) dynamic marking. The right hand has a more active melodic line, and the left hand maintains the accompaniment.
- System 5: Continues the musical development with similar melodic and accompaniment patterns.
- System 6: Ends with a double bar line and the marking "D.C." (Da Capo), indicating a repeat of the section.
